S. B. No. 357, A bill to be entitled "An Act providing conditions to enforce forfeitures under executory contracts for conveyance of real property; providing a method of avoiding forfeiture and acceleration; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Senator Connally offered the following Committee Amendment to the bill:

Amend S. B. No. 357 by striking all below the enacting clause and substitute the following therefor:

Section 1. A forfeiture of the interest and the acceleration of the indebtedness of a purchaser in default under an executory contract for conveyance of real property used or to be used as the purchaser's residence may be enforced only after notice of seller's intentions to enforce the forfeiture and acceleration has been given to the purchaser and only after the expiration of the periods provided below:

(a) When the purchaser has paid less than 10% of the purchase price, 15 days from the date notice is given.

(b) When the purchaser has paid 10% but less than 20% of the purchase price, 30 days from the date notice is given.

(c) When the purchaser has paid 20%, or more, of the purchase price, 60 days from the date notice is given.

(d) Notice must be by mail or other writing. If by mail, it must be registered or certified and shall be considered given at the time mailed to his residence or place of business, and notification by other writing shall be considered given at the time delivered to the purchaser at his residence or place of business.

(e) Such notice shall be conspicuously set out; shall be printed in 10 point bold face type or upper case typewritten letters; and shall include the following:

NOTICE

YOU ARE LATE IN MAKING YOUR PAYMENT UNDER THE CONTRACT TO BUY YOUR HOME. UNLESS YOU MAKE THE PAYMENT BY (date) THE SELLER HAS THE RIGHT TO TAKE POSSESSION OF YOUR HOME AND TO KEEP ALL PAYMENTS YOU HAVE MADE TO DATE.

Sec. 2. A purchaser in default under an executory contract for the conveyance of real property used or to be used as the purchaser's residence, may at any time prior to expiration of the period provided for in Section 1, avoid the forfeiture of his interest and the acceleration of his indebtedness by complying with the terms of the contract up to the date of compliance notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary.

Sec. 3. The fact that there is an urgent and imperative need to protect purchasers of residential property under executory contracts by establishing a fair and equitable procedure to regulate forfeitures and acceleration in such contracts creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and the Rule is hereby suspended; and that this act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The Committee Amendment was read and was adopted.

On motion of Senator Connally, and by unanimous consent, the caption was amended to conform to the body of the bill as amended.

The bill as amended was passed to engrossment.

House Bill 1435 on Second Reading

The Presiding Officer laid before the Senate on its second reading and passage to third reading:

H. B. No. 1435, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing creation of a Hospital District over part of Limestone County, to be known as the South Limestone Hospital District; etc., and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Senator Watson offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend H. B. 1435 by striking all below the enacting clause and substitute in lieu thereof the following:

CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY

Section 1. Pursuant to authority granted by the provisions of Section 9 of Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas, SOUTH LIMESTONE HOSPITAL DISTRICT is hereby authorized to be created.

BOUNDARIES

Section. 2. Said Hospital District, also denominated as The Authority, as created shall have boundaries co-extensive with the boundaries of the Groesbeck Independent School District as it existed on January 1st, 1969, and possess such rights, powers and duties as are hereinafter described.

PURPOSE OF THE DISTRICT

Section 3. The District authorized to be created by this Act is charged with the responsibility of establishing a hospital or a hospital system within its boundaries to furnish hospital and medical care to the residents of the district. After this District is created as provided by Section 4 of this Act, no other municipality or political subdivision of this State may levy taxes or issue bonds or other obligations of indebtedness for the purpose of providing hospital service or medical care within the district. This District shall provide all necessary hospital and medical care for the needy inhabitants of the district.

ELECTION TO CREATE A DISTRICT

Section 4. (a) The District shall not be created, nor shall any tax therein be authorized unless and until such creation and such tax are approved by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors of the District voting at an election called for such purpose. Such election may be called by a majority of the temporary or provisional directors or shall be called by the temporary or provisional directors upon presentation of a petition therefor signed by at least 100 qualified taxpaying electors of the area of the proposed district. Such election shall be called, set and held not less than twenty nor more than ninety days from the date the election is ordered.

(b) The order calling the election shall specify the date, places of holding the election, the form of the ballot, the presiding judge and alternate judge for each voting place and provide for clerks as in county elections.

(c) Notice of election shall be given by publication of a substantial copy of the election order in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication to appear at least twenty days prior to the date established for the election.

(d) The presiding judge of each voting place shall supervise the counting of all votes cast and shall certify the results to the temporary or provisional directors within ten days after the election. A copy of the results are to be filed with the county clerk and become of public record.

(e) At the election, the qualified property taxpaying electors shall vote whether or not the proposed hospital district is to be created. A majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors must approve the creation of the district.

(f) The ballots shall be printed to allow for voting for or against the proposition:

"The creation of the South Limestone Hospital District in Limestone County."

(g) If a majority of the persons voting in the election vote for the creation of the district, the temporary or provisional directors shall, within ten days after the results are filed, declare the results and order the district created. A copy of this order shall be placed in the minutes of the district and filed in the deed records of Limestone County, Texas.

(h) If a majority of the persons voting at the election vote against the creation of the district, this does not prevent the holding of other elections for the same purpose.

APPOINTMENT, ORGANIZATION AND ELECTION OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 5. (a) Upon the effective date of this Act, the following named fifteen persons shall be and constitute the temporary or provisional directors of the said district for Positions listed:

B. L. Bradley, Director,
Position No. 1
Judge Clarence Ferguson,
Director, Position No. 2
Ern Lockhart, Director,
Position No. 3
Clyde Roberson, Director,
Position No. 4
L. L. Geren, Director,
Position No. 5

Position No. 6
W. E. Corbitt, Director,
Position No. 7
Norman Ray Jones, Director,
Position No. 8
Billie Bob Seamans, Director,
Position No. 9
J. F. Jackson, Director,
Position No. 10
Dr. Stanley Cox, Director,
Position No. 11
Frank Mitchell, Director,
Position No. 12
Kimbell Hughes, Director,
Position No. 13
Rex Allen Black, Director,
Position No. 14
A. T. Lauderdale, Director,
Position No. 15

and each of said directors shall subscribe to the constitutional oath of office within 30 days of the effective date of this Act. Should any of the named directors refuse to act or for any reason fail to qualify as herein required, those qualifying as directors shall fill such vacancy or vacancies.

(b) Each member of the board of directors shall qualify by also executing a good and sufficient bond for $1,000 payable to said district conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. Each such bond shall be purchased at the expense of the district. Such oaths and bonds shall be deposited with the depository bank of the district for safekeeping.

(c) The board of directors shall organize by electing one of their number as president, one of their number vice-president, one of their number secretary and one of their number treasurer. At the discretion of the board, the offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined.

(d) All vacancies in the appointed, designated and elective positions of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment made by the remainder of the board of directors.

(e) The temporary or provisional directors shall serve until an election to be called by the board of directors for the first Saturday in April, after the creation of the district. At said election there shall be elected as directors for two years from that date for the odd numbered positions and for four years from that date for the even numbered positions. Candidates shall run by position. Thereafter, elections shall be had each two years. The term of the odd numbered positions being for two years and the even numbered positions being for four years.

(f) to qualify for election to the board, a person must:

- (1) be at least 21 years of age;
- (2) have been a resident of the district for at least two years;
- (3) be a qualified property taxpaying elector of the district.

(g) Any person who is qualified to serve on the board of directors and who desires to serve shall file his name with the board of directors at least two weeks before the date of the election.

(h) A director holds office for his term and until his successor qualifies.

(i) A member of the board of directors is not entitled to compensation for his services. However, each member is entitled to reimbursement for any necessary expense incurred by him in the performance of the duties of his office.

TAXES, ELECTION

Section 6. (a) At the time of the election to create the district the temporary or provisional directors shall order an election to determine whether the district may levy taxes within the district. This tax may not exceed thirty-eight (38) cents on the $100 valuation of all taxable property within the district.

(b) Prior to this election, notice must be given by the board of directors in the same manner provided in Section 4 of this Act. The presiding judge of each voting place shall certify the results to the board of directors which shall declare the results. The results are to be of public record.

(c) The ballots shall be printed to allow for voting for or against the proposition:

"The levy of a tax not to exceed thirty-eight (38) cents on the $100 valuation on all property subject to taxation within the district."

(d) The board of directors shall not levy any tax within the district until a majority of the qualified property taxpaying electors voting in the election vote for the levy of the tax.

(e) If a majority of persons voting at the election vote against the tax levy this does not prevent the holding of other elections for the same purpose.

TAXES, LEVY AND ASSESSMENT

Section 7. (a) After a majority of those persons voting at the election vote for the levy of a tax, the board of directors shall levy a tax not to exceed thirty-eight (38) cents on the $100 valuation on all property subject to taxation within the district.

(b) The board may use the proceeds of this tax for the following purposes only:

(1) providing for the operation and maintenance of the hospital district and the hospital system;

(2) making improvements and additions to the hospital system;

(3) acquiring sites for the additions to the hospital system.

(c) On or before October 1, of each year, the board shall levy the tax and immediately certify the tax rate to the tax assessor and collector of the district.

(d) The board of directors of the district shall have the authority in its discretion to use any of the following taxing units to assess and collect said taxes:

(1) the tax assessor and collector of Limestone County;

(2) the tax assessor and collector of the Groesbeck Independent School District;

(3) the tax assessor and collector that the board establishes for the hospital district, should it decide to use this system.

(e) The assessor and collector of taxes is entitled to a fee as compensation for his services to be set by the board of directors. The board shall fix the exact amount of compensation. The tax assessor and collector shall deduct this fee from the payments made to the district of the taxes collected. The tax collector shall be bonded in the amount set by the board of directors.

(f) The board may levy this tax for the entire year in which the district is established to secure funds necessary to initiate the operation of the hospital district.

REVENUE BONDS

Section 8. The Authority may issue revenue bonds to provide for any of its purposes. Such bonds shall be payable from revenues and secured by a pledge of all or any part of the revenues to be derived from the operation of the hospital or hospitals and any other revenues resulting from the ownership of the hospital properties. The bonds may be additionally secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property of Authority or by a chattel mortgage on its personal property, or by both.

PROCEDURE FOR BOND ISSUE; REQUISITES; MATURITY; SALES; REGISTRATION

Section 9. The bonds shall be authorized by resolution adopted by a majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors, and shall be signed by the president or vice-president and countersigned by the secretary, or either or both of their facsimile signatures may be printed thereon. The seal of the Authority shall be impressed or printed thereon. The bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years and may be sold at a price and under terms determined by the Board of Directors to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the Authority, including the discount, if any, calculated by use of standard bond interest tables currently in use by insurance companies and investment houses does not exceed seven per cent (7%) per annum, and within the discretion of the Board, may be made callable prior to maturity at such time and prices as may be prescribed in the resolution authorizing the bonds, and may be made registerable as to principal or as to both principal and interest.

LEGAL AND AUTHORIZED INVESTMENTS

Section 10. All bonds issued under this act, as amended, shall be legal and authorized investments for all banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies of all kinds and types, and for the interest and sinking funds and other public funds of any issuer, as such term is defined in this Act. Said bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the State of Texas and of any issuer, as such term is defined in this Act, to the extent of the value of said bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

JUNIOR LIEN BONDS; PARITY BONDS

Section 11. Bonds constituting a junior lien on the net revenues or properties may be issued unless prohibited by the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture. Parity bonds may be issued under conditions specified in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture.

RESERVES FOR OPERATING EXPENSES

Section 12. Money for the payment of not more than two (2) years interest on the bonds and an amount estimated by the Board to be required for operating expenses during the first year of operation may be set aside for those purposes out of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds. But the Authority shall comply with government regulations requiring that interest during development is limited to six months and that initial operating expenses must be provided by applicant and not from loan funds.

Section 13. Bonds may be issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds, and may be exchanged by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas or sold and the proceeds applied in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Chapter 503, Acts of the Fifty-fourth Legislature.

ATTORNEY GENERAL; APPROVAL OF BONDS; REGISTRATION; NEGOTIABILITY

Section 14. Bonds issued under this Act and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with this law and constitute valid and binding obligations of the Authority and are secured as recited therein he shall approve them, and they shall be registered by Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas who shall certify such registration thereon. Thereafter they shall be incontestable. The bonds shall be negotiable and shall contain the following provision: "The holder hereof shall never have the right to demand payment thereof out of money raised or to be raised by taxation."

NONPROFIT INSTITUTION; RATES CHARGED; BOND RESERVE FUND

Section 15. The hospital shall be operated without the intervention of private profit for the use and benefit of the public. But it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to charge sufficient rates for services rendered by the hospital and to utilize other sources of its revenues that revenues will be produced sufficient to pay all expenses in connection with the ownership, operation and upkeep of the hospital, to pay the interest on the bonds as it becomes due, to create a sinking fund to pay the bonds as they become due, and to create and maintain a bond reserve fund and other funds as provided in the Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture. The Bond Resolution or Trust Indenture may prescribe systems, methods, routines and procedures under or in accordance with which the hospital shall be operated.

TAX EXEMPTION

Section 16. Recognizing the fact that the property owned by Authority will be held for public purposes only and will be devoted exclusively to the use and benefit of the public, it shall be exempt from taxation of every character.

ACQUISITION OF PROPERTY; EASEMENTS

Section 17. For the purpose of carrying out any power conferred by this Act, Authority shall have the right to acquire the fee simple title to land and other property and easements by condemnation in the manner provided by Title 52, Revised Civil Statutes as amended, relating to eminent domain. Authority is hereby declared to be a municipal corporation within the meaning of Article 3268 of said Title 52. The amount of and character or interest in land, other property and easements thus to be acquired shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

INVESTMENTS OF FUNDS; SECURITY

Section 18. The law as to the security for and the investment of funds, applicable to Cities, shall control, insofar as applicable to the investment of funds belonging to Authority. The Bond Resolution or the Indenture or both may further restrict the making of such investments. In addition to other powers Authority shall have the right to invest the proceeds of its bonds, until such money is needed, in the direct obligations of or obligations unconditionally guaranteed by the United States Government, to the extent authorized in the Bond Resolution or Indenture or in both.

DONATIONS, GIFTS AND ENDOWMENTS

Section 19. The Board of Directors is authorized to accept donations, gifts and endowments to be held and administered as may be required by the respective donors, to the extent that such requirements would not contravene law.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 20. (a) The Board of Directors has full power to manage and control the district. Any provision of this Act which provides a specific power or duty does not limit the general authority of the district to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(b) The board shall keep all books, records, accounts, notices, minutes, and other matters of the district and its operation at the office of the district. The board shall make these items available for public inspection at reasonable times.

(c) The board shall adopt rules for the efficient operation of the district and its facilities which are not inconsistent with this Act. The board shall publish these rules and regulations in book form and furnish copies to interested persons upon request and at the expense of the district.

(d) The board shall require an annual independent audit of the books and records of the district and shall file a copy of the audit with the Comptroller of Public Accounts and a copy with the district not later than December 1 of each year.

(e) The board may

(1) prescribe the method of making purchases and expenditures and the manner of accounting and control used by the district;

(2) employ an attorney, general manager, bookkeeper, architect, and other employees necessary for the efficient operation of the district;

(3) employ an administrator to manage the operations of the hospital system, who may hire necessary personnel to perform the services provided by the system.

(f) The board may enter any contract with a municipality or other political subdivision to provide hospital and medical care for needy persons who reside outside the district.

BUDGET

Section 21. (a) The fiscal year of the hospital district is from October 1 of each year to September 30 of the following year.

(b) The board shall prepare a budget showing

(1) the proposed expenditures and disbursements;

(2) the estimated receipts and collections for the next fiscal year;

(3) the amount of taxes required to be levied and collected during the next fiscal year to meet the proposed budget.

(c) The board shall hold a public hearing on the proposed budget after publication of notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the district. The notice must be given at least one time before the ten-day period immediately preceding the day of the hearing.

(d) Any person who owns taxable property within the district and has duly rendered that property for taxation is entitled to appear at the hearing and be heard with reference to any item in the proposed budget.

INQUIRY INTO ABILITY TO PAY

Section 22. (a) A person who resides within the district is entitled to receive necessary medical and hospital care whether he has the ability to pay for the care or not. A person who resides within the district may make application to receive this care without cost.

(b) The board or the administrator shall employ a person to investigate the ability of the patient and the ability of any relative who is liable for the support of the patient to pay for the medical and hospital care which the patient receives.

(c) If the patient or a relative of the patient who is legally liable for his support is able to pay for this care in whole or in part, the board shall order the patient or his relatives to pay the treasurer each week an amount specified in the order. The amount must be in proportion to the ability to pay.

(d) The district may collect this amount from the estate of the patient, or from his relatives who are liable for this support, in the manner provided by law for the collection of expenses of the last illness of a deceased person.

(e) If the investigator finds that neither the patient, nor a relative who is legally liable for his support, is able to pay in whole or in part for this care the expense of this care becomes a charge on the district.

(f) If there is a dispute as to the ability to pay, or a doubt in the mind of the investigator, the board shall hear and determine the question, after calling witnesses, and make the proper order based on its findings.

(g) A party to the hearing who is not satisfied with the result of the order, may appeal to the district court. The appeal is de novo.

COURT COSTS AND DEPOSITS

Section. 23. The district is not required to pay in advance or to give any bond or other security for costs in the trial court otherwise required for the issuance relating to a condemnation proceeding, nor is it required to give a bond for costs or for supersedeas on an appeal or writ of error proceeding to a Court of Civil Appeals or to the Supreme Court. The district is not required to make deposits in the registry of the trial court or to post bond as required by Paragraph 2, Article 3268, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925 as amended in condemnation proceedings.

DEPOSITORY

Section 24. Within 30 days after the qualifications of the board of directors, the board shall by resolution designate a bank within the county in which the district is located to be the depository of the district. All funds of the district shall be deposited in the depository and shall be secured in the manner now provided for the security of county funds. The depository shall serve for a period of two years and until a successor has been named in accordance with this section.

INSPECTION OF THE DISTRICT

Section 25. (a) The district is subject to inspection at a time by an authorized representative of the State Board of Health, the State Board of Public Welfare, or any other state agency created for a similar purpose.

(b) The administrator of the hospital shall admit a representative into the facilities of the district and make accessible on demand all district records, reports, books, papers, and accounts.

STATE SUPPORT

Section 26. The support and maintenance of the hospital system of the district and any indebtedness incurred by the district under this Act shall never become a charge against nor an obligation of the State of Texas, nor shall any direct appropriation be made by the Legislature of the State of Texas for the construction, maintenance or improvement of any of the facilities of the district.

NOTICE

Section 27. Proof of publication of the Constitutional Notice required in the enactment hereof under the provisions of Section 9 of Article IX of the Texas Constitution has been made in the manner and form provided by law pertaining to the enactment of Local and Special Laws and is hereby found and declared to be proper and sufficient to satisfy such requirements.

CONFORMING TO STATE AND FEDERAL CONSTITUTION

Section 28. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the Federal or State Constitution, and all things done under this Act shall be in such manner as will conform thereto, whether expressly so provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such constitutions, the District shall have the power by resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable with such constitutions. If any provision of this Act should be invalid, such fact shall not affect the authorization for the creation of the District or the validity of any other provisions of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have created the District and enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions hereof.

SEVERANCE CLAUSE, PARTIAL INVALIDITY

Section 29. If any word, phrase, sentence, section, portion or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of this Act, and the application of such word, phrase, sentence, section, portion or provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. In the event any of the provisions hereof shall be in conflict with any other law of this State, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

EMERGENCY CLAUSE

Section 30. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this Rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The amendment was read and was adopted.

On motion of Senator Watson, and by unanimous consent, the caption was amended to conform to the body of the bill as amended.

The bill as amended was passed to third reading.

House Bills Added to Local and Uncontested Bills Calendar

On motion of Senator Word, and by unanimous consent, H. B. No. 1327, H. B. No. 74, H. B. No. 1351, H. B. No. 1385, H. B. No. 84, H. B. No. 959, H. B. No. 1344 and H. B. No. 1214 will be added to the Local and Uncontested Bills Calendar.

House Bill 1327 on Second Reading

The Presiding Officer laid before the Senate on its second reading and passage to third reading:

H. B. No. 1327, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing cities and towns (including Home Rule Cities) which do not have municipally owned water works or sanitary sewer systems to assess against benefited properties and the owners thereof a part of the costs of "On-Site" improvements, as therein defined, to any water works or sanitary sewer system (either or both) hereafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired; authorizing the construction of such "On-Site" improvements in areas to be defined by such cities so that water service or sanitary sewer service, or both, can be furnished to such areas; etc., and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Senator Schwartz offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill 1327 by striking all of Section 17 thereof and substituting the following in lieu thereof:

"Section 17. All incorporated municipalities in this state which now have or may hereafter have a municipally-owned water or sewer system shall be prohibited from specially assessing, specially charging or specially imposing the cost of off-site or on-site water system or sewer system improvements against developers, subdividers or property owners and/or their abutting or benefited property, when such property is in a subdivision or tract of land platted and filed after the effective date of this Act, regardless whether such imposition of costs be by water regulation, platting ordinance, subdivision ordinance, zoning ordinance, assessment, fees, or other means of any kind or nature, other than by general taxation. This provision shall take precedence over any other provision of this Act."

The amendment was read and was adopted.

Senator Schwartz offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend H. B. 1327 by striking all of Section 23 thereof and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 23. The fact that municipal authority to assess the cost of on-site water and sewer improvements against abutting or benefited properties is not now existent, but may be needed and justified in some very limited circumstances, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three separate days in each House be suspended, and said rule is suspended, and that this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

The amendment was read and was adopted.

Senator Schwartz offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend H. B. 1327 by striking all above the enacting clause and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

"A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

An Act authorizing cities and towns (including home rule cities) which do not have municipally owned water works or sanitary sewer systems, to assess against benefited properties and the owners thereof a part of the cost of 'on-site' improvements, as therein defined, to any water works or sanitary sewer system (either or both) hereinafter constructed, purchased or otherwise acquired; authorizing the construction of such 'on-site' improvements in the areas to be defined by such cities so that water service or sanitary sewer service, or both, can be furnished to such areas; providing procedures in connection with assessment programs and for the enforcement and collection of such assessments; prohibiting all incorporated municipalities which own or may hereafter own water or sewer utilities from specially assessing, specially charging, or specially imposing the cost of 'off-site' or 'on-site' utility improvements (other than by general taxation) against property and/or property owners under certain circumstances; prescribing the effect of certificates of special assessment and that same shall be legal and authorized investments in certain circumstances; providing that the provisions of the act shall be cumulative of the existing laws and shall be liberally construed to effect its purpose; repealing all laws or parts of laws in conflict therewith; providing a severance clause; and enacting other provisions incident and relating to subject matter and declaring an emergency."

The amendment was read and was adopted.

The bill as amended was passed to third reading.

House Bill 1327 on Third Reading

The bill was read second time.

Senator Strong offered the following Committee Amendment to the bill:

Amend Section 1 of House Bill No. 74 by adding a new subsection to be lettered "(k)" and to read as follows:

"(k) Upon the filing of the notice as to tax lien relative to a motor vehicle and the noting of such lien on the Certificate of Title, the State shall have a preferred lien as against any subsequent mortgagee, purchaser, judgment creditor or other person claiming any interest in said motor vehicle but such lien shall not be valid or effective against any previously acquired title, lien or interest under the provisions of the Certificate of Title Act (Acts, 1939. 46th Legislature, Chapter 4, page 602)."

The Committee Amendment was read.

On motion of Senator Strong, and by unanimous consent, the amendment was tabled.

Senator Strong offered the following Committee Amendment to the bill:

Amend Section 1 of House Bill No. 74 by adding a new subsection after subsection (i) to be lettered (j) and to read as follows:

"(j) Such lien shall not be valid as against any 'mortgagee' or any 'motor vehicle' as those terms are defined in the Certificate of Title Act (Acts, 1939, 46th Legislature, Chapter 4, page 604), provided such mortgagee has complied with the provisions of the Certificate of Title Act, prior to the filing by the Comptroller of Public Accounts with the State Highway Department of a certificate showing the make, body type and motor number of the motor vehicle upon which a tax lien exists and the amount of taxes, penalties, interest, and costs due the State, and the State's lien having been noted upon the motor vehicle's certificate of title."

The Committee Amendment was read.

On motion of Senator Strong, and by unanimous consent, the amendment was tabled.

Senator Strong offered the following Committee Amendment to the bill:

Amend Section 1 of House Bill 74 by striking out all of Subsection (c) and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

"(c) No lien provided for by Title 122A shall be effective as against any bona fide mortgagee, holder of a deed of trust, purchaser or judgment creditor or any other person who for a bona fide consideration has acquired a lien, title or other right or interest in any real estate or personal property of the taxpayer prior to the filing, recording and indexing of such lien in the county where real estate is situated, and for personal property, in the county of the residence of the taxpayer at the time that said tax became due and payable or in the county in which said taxpayer filed his report."

The Committee Amendment was read and was adopted.

Senator Strong offered the following Committee Amendment to the bill:

Amend Section 1 of House Bill No. 74 by striking out all of subsection (d) and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

"(d) The liens provided for in Article 1.07, 1.07A and 1.07B are cumulative and in addition to all other liens for taxes, fines, penalties and interests now provided by law."

The Committee Amendment was read and was adopted.

Message From the House

Hall of the House of Representatives,
Austin, Texas,
May 22, 1969.

Hon. Ben Barnes, President of the Senate.

Sir: I am directed by the House to inform the Senate that the House has passed the following:

H. B. No. 1440, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Section 18 of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act, Acts 1935, 44th Legislature, 2nd Called Session, as amended (codified as Article 666-18, Vernon's Annotated Penal Code of the State of Texas), so as to provide that the relief by private remedy contained in the last sentence of said section shall apply only to package store permittees and so as to exempt bona fide hotels as already defined in the Texas Liquor Control Act from the provision prohibiting the use of only a portion of a building as premise for a package store; and declaring an emergency."

H. B. No. 792, A bill to be entitled "An Act amending Sections 1 and 3, Chapter 137, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963 (Article 6144f, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), relating to the organization, control and management of the Texas Tourist Development Agency; and declaring an emergency."

H. B. No. 467, A bill to be entitled "An Act relating to the teaching of a course on the evils of crime and narcotics in grades 6 through 12 in the public schools; and declaring an emergency."

H. J. R. No. 10, A Joint Resolution Proposing an Amendment to Article I, Section 11, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for the denial of bail by a magistrate to any person accused of a felony and found by the court to be free on bail for a felony when charged with a second felony, or to be likely to be sentenced to over fifteen years imprisonment upon conviction, or to be inherently dangerous to himself or others if left at large, or to be likely to fail to appear for his trial; providing a limit to that person's incarceration without trial; granting the right of appeal; providing for the necessary election and the form of the ballot; and providing for the necessary proclamation and publication.

H. J. R. No. 57, A Joint Resolution Proposing an Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of Texas by adding a new section to be known as Section 56a; prohibiting the Legislature from establishing, increasing, modifying or otherwise changing salaries of officials and employees of political subdivisions by local or special law.

Respectfully submitted,
DOROTHY HALLMAN,
Chief Clerk, House of Representatives
